

European Biking Cities

Cycling for clean air

Clean Air & bicycle - why?

Wasilis von Rauch| 16.10.2014

Clean Air - European Biking Cities

Wasilis von Rauch | 16.10.2014

Clean Air - European Biking Cities

Wasilis von Rauch | 16.10.2014

Clean Air - European Biking Cities

Two Principles:

Good practice rather than best practice
Participatory working mode

Expertise

EBC
vitoria

Topics of expertise:

- x public participation
- x parking solutions/theft
- x road safety for cyclists
- x PR activities
- x bike sharing systems & service innovations
- x cycling to school-promotion
- x tourism
- x cargo bikes
- x riding a bike
- x contraflow networks
- x public transport & bicycles
- x grassroot organisations
- x finding strategic partners in the city
- x cycling infrastructure in historic surrounding

- x bicycle traffic during construction sites
- x counting bicycle traffic
- x pedestrians and cyclists

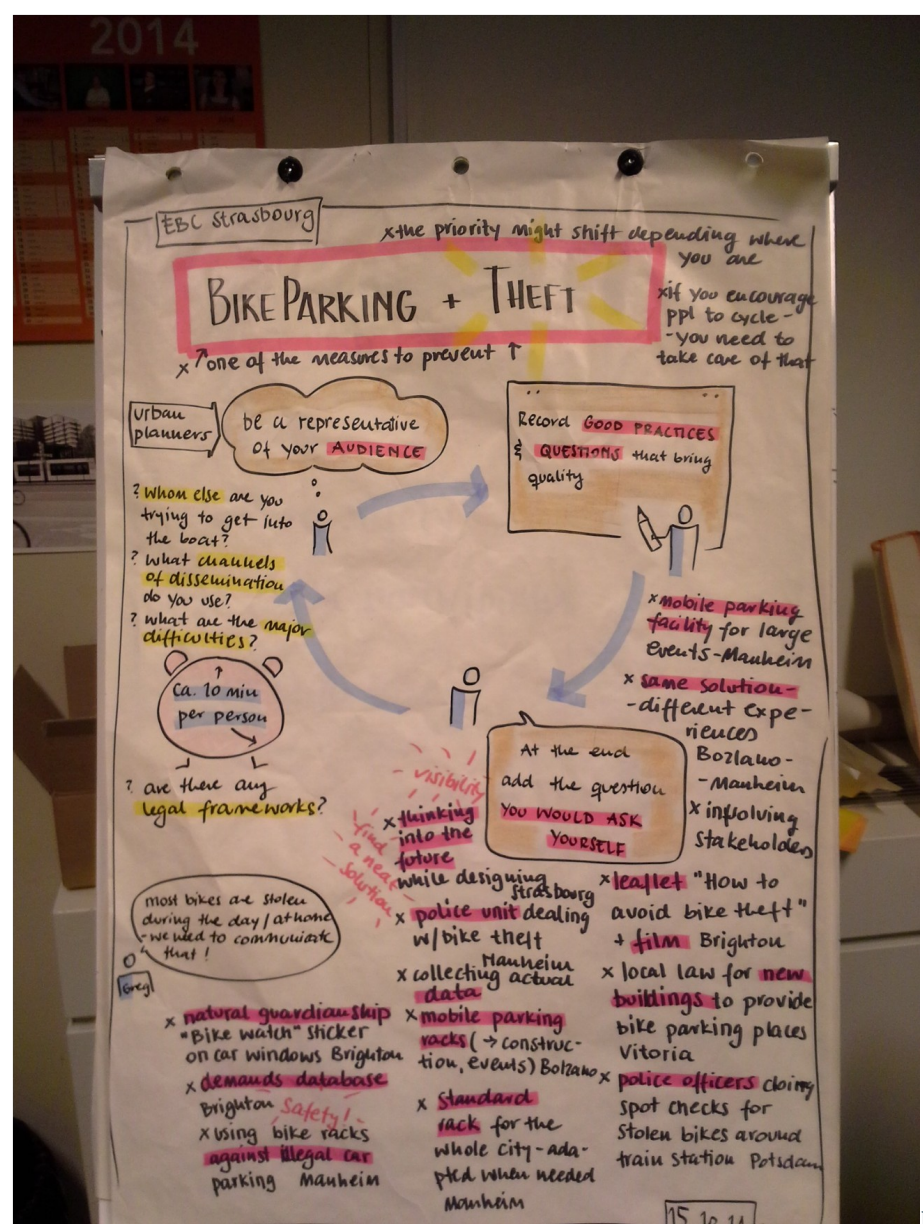

Bn - ●
 Maastricht ●
 Poljden ●
 Vitoria-Gasteiz ●
 Bolzano ●
 Strasbourg ●

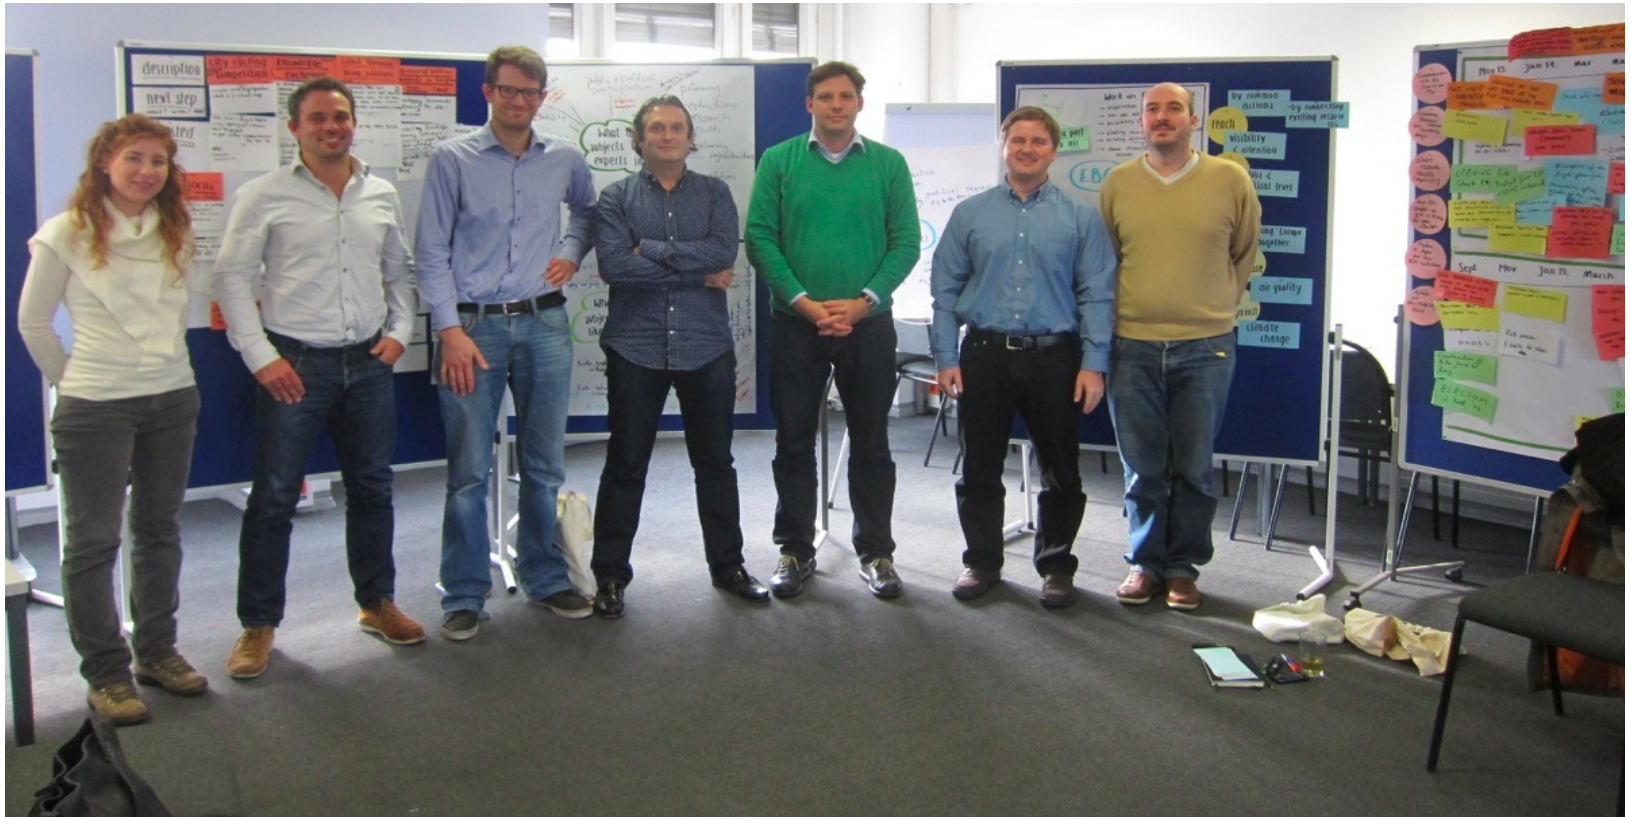

23.05.14

clean air
EUROPEAN BIKING CITIES

Collecting information

Focus Topics

Bike theft and Bicycle Parking

Cohabitation between pedestrians and cyclists

Cargo Bikes in commercial transport

Allez les vélos & à bientôt en Nantes!

Contact: wasilis.vonrauch@vcd.org www.cleanair-europe.org

